

EUROPEAN VOLUNTARY SERVICE COMPETITION: ‘EVS IN MY HANDS 2014’

Dear volunteers and ex-volunteers, many of you have gone through or still are going through an interesting life experience in your projects of the European Voluntary Service. If there is/was something interesting (e.g. mini-project or other activity) in your EVS you would like to share with others, we would really appreciate if you sign contribute in the EVS competition this year.

THE AIM OF COMPETITION:

Collect interesting outputs from EVS projects (audio, video, written, painted etc.) and present them to all EVS actors within the evening party. Later on it will be presented as a good practice of EVS project to wider public and during other events organized by The Centre for International Cooperation in Education (DZS).

WHO AND WHAT CAN PARTICIPATE?

Ex-volunteers from the Czech Republic, current Czech EVS volunteers abroad and foreign EVS volunteers doing their EVS in the Czech Republic.

You can register interesting activity realised by volunteers during his/her EVS and which is somehow connected with the topic of EVS project (e.g. video about EVS project or other activity, photo from EVS project, creative object, article written by volunteer etc.)

Volunteer's contribution to this competition can be also registered by sending or hosting organisation.

DEADLINE:

Please send your application by 10. 9. 2014 via email to tereza.krbcova@dzs.cz. Please, send enclose to your application: contribution and one your photo from your project in electronic form.

The award ceremonial and presentation of your contributions will be part of an evening cultural party on 11th of October 2014 in Prague.

For the evening award party we invite all those who take active part in EVS projects (volunteers, ex-volunteers, mentors, representatives from sending, hosting and coordinating organisations etc.).

Invitation for the party will be sent during September 2014.
